

Joint Boardroom briefing - Current corporate law and tax issues facing directors and senior executives

Invitation

The partners of HLB Mann Judd and Holding Redlich would like to invite you to a joint boardroom briefing at the offices of HLB Mann Judd on Thursday 4 March 2010 at 8:30am.

2009 was a challenging year for company directors and senior executives, emphasising the growing exposure of senior executives, including CFO's, to personal liability.

Darren Pereira, Partner, and Lyn Nicholson, Special Counsel, of Holding Redlich, will be presenting on:

- some of the emerging key risks about which directors and senior executives need to be aware;
- the lessons to be learned from recent cases; and
- strategies you can use as an executive to minimise your exposure to personal liability.

Peter Bembrick, Tax Partner of HLB Mann Judd, will be presenting on:

- personal risks for company directors relating to the tax affairs of the business;
- tax planning for 30 June 2010 - now is the time to start; and
- an update on cross border tax issues for SMEs.

Time and Place

Registration will be open from 8.15am and the briefing will commence at 8:30am sharp, finishing at 9:45am. Coffee, tea and muffins will be served. As numbers are limited please register your acceptance by Wednesday 24 February by phoning Connie Kennedy (02) 9020 4221 or by email ckennedy@hlbns.com.au. HLB Mann Judd's boardroom is located on Level 19, 207 Kent Street, Sydney (the southern tower of the Maritime Trade Centre at the north end of Kent Street).

Parking

Parking is available at Sun Parking, 261 - 293 Kent Street Sydney.