

Franchise Breakfast Seminar

Franchising Code: Proposed Reforms

Yet again the Government seems to want to change the rules for franchisors to do business. A Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services report was released proposing a number of significant amendments to the Franchising Code of Conduct. At Holding Redlich, we want to make sure you keep ahead of the curve on these reforms.

In this seminar we will:

- explain the proposed amendments
- discuss the implications of these changes
- explain the steps that can be taken in preparation for the introduction of these changes
- ensure that you minimise any possible compliance costs
