

Planning & Environment Breakfast Seminar

Tales of Mystery and Imagination

South East Queensland Regional Plan 2009 - 2031

The review of the current South East Queensland Regional Plan (SEQRP) was largely focused on dealing with the South East's continued high population growth, housing affordability, transport congestion and climate change.

Public submissions were called for and close on May 1 2009.

At this seminar you will learn what is proposed to be changed and how the changes may affect you. We have designed the seminar particularly for property investors, developers, project managers and property and planning consultants.

Guest speaker Peter Turnbull of Blue Green Brown Environmental Planning, will provide a practical insight into the SEQRP.
