

Round Table Discussion

Risk Management and Pandemic Preparation

With recent Courier Mail headlines “SHUTDOWN – Bligh activates pandemic plan and readies for worst” (front page 29th of April) there is little wonder that up to 60% of the costs associated with pandemics are fear related.

Come and learn from the panel’s plan, communicate and increase your businesses effectiveness to reduce the impact on you (and avoid getting in legal hot water over your obligations).

The following topics will be discussed:

- Developing a corporate pandemic response plan
- Impacts on business
- The link between bio security and swine flu
- Lessons learnt with the equine flu outbreak
- Litigation / Legal responsibilities of employers / directors / office bearers
- Implementing risk management programs – if not, when
