

Holding Redlich Seminar 2010

Holding Redlich has pleasure in inviting you to the following seminar.

ASIC v Rich & Ors - Significant implications for company directors and executives

The recent decision in ASIC v Rich & Ors [2003] NSWSC 85 has significant implications for company directors and executives. The case was one of the largest and longest in Australian history and attracted considerable media interest. Julian O'Sullivan was one of the counsel who appeared for ASIC and will deliver a presentation covering:

- a summary of the facts
- the scope of directors' duties of care and diligence
- the business judgment rule defence
- evidentiary issues and ASIC's conduct of the case
- technology in the courtroom
