Construction & Infrastructure
Breakfast Seminar Series 2009

Holding Redlich strives to keep our clients well informed. We understand the importance of keeping up to date on both legal and key developments in the construction & infrastructure industry. Industry knowledge underpins our approach and sets benchmarks for the areas we specialise in. This year we will be holding a series of five seminars that will cover issues pertinent to your industry.

No. 4: Navigating the rough waters of default and termination

This seminar will consider strategies for dealing with defaulting contractual parties and how to manage the legal issues which arise in this commercial context. It will also consider how parties can manage the legal issues associated with taking the ultimate step of terminating a contract for default.

Where: Level 65, MLC Centre, 19 Martin Place, Sydney

When: Tuesday 11 August 2009
8 am - 9 am (a light breakfast will be served from 7.45 am)

RSVP: By Tuesday 4 August 2009
To Elizabeth McDonald
By filling out the form below and faxing it to F: +61 (0)2 8083 0399
by phone on T: +61 (0)2 8083 0402
or by email to E: seminar@holdingredlich.com.au

The fifth seminar in the series, entitled 'Making and defending extension of time and liquidated damages claims', will be held at the same time on 29 October 2009. We will be sending out an invitation for the October seminar during September 2009.

☐ yes, I will attend

☐ no, I am unable to attend
but send me some information on this topic

Name(s): .....

Position(s): .....

Organisation: .....

Address: .....

Phone: .....

Email: .....

If there are any specific issues you would like addressed at the seminar, please email your questions to seminar@holdingredlich.com.au